OCTOBER 31 - NOVEMBER 4, 2026

Overnight: Berlin

November 1, Sunday

Tomek will begin the program by leading us through modern Berlin, considering the trials that were faced during the Cold War. This will involve about 6 hours of walking, so make sure to have appropriate shoes. There are some English congregations who have their meeting at 5:00pm, so if you would like to join a local meeting, this would be a good day for it.

Overnight: Berlin

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch included

November 2, Monday

We will leave from the hotel on the bus and consider what faithful worshipers of God faced during the rise of the Third Reich. We will visit the Sachsenhausen concentration camp first and then the Ravensbrück Concentration Camp, following the trail of the death march. At the end of the tour, it is a two hour bus ride back to the hotel, so you will have some time to rest after a day of deep reflection.

Overnight: Berlin

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch included

November 3, Tuesday

The first two days are already a lot of information and emotion, and perhaps you will still be jet lagged. So this is a free day in Berlin to relax, do some shopping, or have a pint.

Overnight: Berlin

Meals: Breakfast included

November 4, Wednesday

Together we will travel to the Berlin Airport (BER) and depart for Rome, Italy (FCO). This will not be the day to be late. We will have everyone divided into smaller groups to ensure we all move together in an organized way.

Meals: Breakfast included

MOBILITY:

The walking tour of Berlin will not involve many stairs or climbing, however, it will still be a long day of walking, about six hours.

SAFETY:

Berlin is generally a very safe city for tourists, with low violent crime, but like any major city, it requires common-sense precautions against pickpocketing in crowded areas like public transport, markets, and tourist spots, and avoiding poorly lit parks at night.

ENTRY CONDITIONS:

Please ensure the visa requirements for your country.

THE PERGAMON MUSEUM

If you hope to visit this amazing museum, you'll have to return to Berlin in 2037 when it reopens to the public.

TOUR ADD-ON (OCTOBER 29-30)

For those interested, the tour can begin early with a visit to the Central European Branch of Jehovah's Witnesses. Thursday, October 29, you will need to arrive in Frankfurt, Germany. On the next morning (Friday, October 30) we will depart from a set location for the branch. After the visit, we will travel together via train to Berlin for the start of the tour.

The price for this add-on will be based on the number of people interested, as the price for the bus will vary based on the needed capacity.

Overnight: Jerusalem

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch included

November 10, Tuesday

In the morning, we will visit the Israel Museum and the Dead Sea Scrolls. Many of the artifacts will lead into the sites we will see in the coming days. The afternoon you will have as free time to explore the city and do some shopping.

Overnight: Jerusalem

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch included

November 11, Wednesday

We leave Jerusalem and explore the Shephelah region. We will consider the various wars that happened along this frontier between Israel and the Philistines, Assyrians and Babylonians. We visit Tel Beit Shemesh, the Elah Valley, and Lachish. Our lunch will be at a boutique winery in Adullam, where David hid from Saul. After the tour we will travel north to the Galilee to our next hotel.

Overnight: Tiberias

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch (and wine tasting) included

November 12, Thursday

We will delve into the lives of Jesus' disciples and the challenges they overcame as we tour their hometowns of Magdala (Mary), Capernaum (Matthew), and Sussita (the man possessed by the Legion). We will return to the hotel in the early afternoon so you can have time to walk by the water or explore the city.

Overnight: Tiberias

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch included

November 13, Friday

We will have an early start and head north to Mount Hermon, visiting Hazor and Dan. After a long morning delving into the unfaithful Israelite king's history and the resulting tests on faithful ones, we will enjoy a traditional Druze banquet lunch in the Golan.

Meals: Breakfast and Lunch included

November 14, Saturday

As we drive south, we will consider judges, prophets and kings that made their faith known through action as we visit Tel Megiddo and look out at Mount Tabor, Moreh, Gilboa, and Carmel. Our lunch and afternoon will be spent at the port city of Caesarea, where Paul and Luke called home for two years. From here we head to Tel Aviv.

Meals: Breakfast and Dinner included

November 16, Monday

You will need to check-out of the hotel by 11:00am, or arrange to extend your stay.

Meals: Breakfast

MOBILITY CHALLENGES:

Jerusalem will be difficult for mobility, as the City of David Park has many narrow and steep staircases and the day in general involves a lot of walking up and down stairs. The Elah Valley and Dan tours will also involve sections of walking up and down gravel trails.

SAFETY:

Israel is a very safe country to visit, despite what you see on the news. Women are typically safe walking the streets at night and petty crime is minimal. However, it is still best to avoid walking through very Jewish (Orthodox) or Muslim neighbourhoods, due to the stricter views of modesty. In the rare event of a siren outside of the tour, the locals will readily help you know what to do, as most Israeli's speak fluent English and are very helpful towards tourists.

ENTRY CONDITIONS:

Please ensure the visa requirements for your country. All tourists need to have valid travel medical insurance to enter. You may face extra questioning at the border if your passport shows you have recently visited a country that does not recognise Israel's statehood (for example: Iran, Tunisia, or Yemen).

THEOCRATIC ACTIVITY

Be aware that in Israel it is illegal to speak religion to anyone under the age of 18. So ensure to ask the persons age if you plan to preach. Otherwise, it could lead to a fine, your removal from the country, and legal problems for the local brothers.

TOUR ADD-ONS

After the tour is completed, for those wanting to stay a few extra days in Israel, we will offer optional tours:

Jerusalem Bonus Day (Yad Vashem - National Holocaust Museum, and Biblical sites)

The Dead Sea (En Gedi and Masada)

The Negev (Beer-Sheva and the Spice Route)

More information will be provided closer to the date for those interested.

TOUR ORGANIZER AND GUIDE TOMEK KATARZYNIEC - BERLIN

Tomek is a licensed tour guide based in Berlin, Germany. Working in a city marked by dictatorship, division, and remembrance, he has spent many years guiding visitors through Berlin's modern history, with a particular focus on conscience, resistance, and the experiences of Jehovah's Witnesses during the Nazi era and the Cold War.

What defines Tomek's guiding style is a strong emphasis on people rather than ideology. His tours are built around personal stories, moral choices, and the long-term consequences of historical decisions. By guiding at original locations and encouraging reflection, he helps guests connect past events with questions that remain relevant today.

TOUR ORGANIZER AND GUIDE DAVID FIELD - ISRAEL

David's family is from Ashkelon, Israel, though he grew up in Canada. In 2019, he returned with his wife Desiree to live in Haifa. They set up their tourism company, Drink Offering Ltd, and as they began the process of obtaining all the necessary government licenses to operate tours in Israel, David and Desiree launched Taste & See TV, a virtual tour program filmed throughout the Bible lands.

David is a strong believer in respecting copyrights and not doing a copy-and-paste tours based only on the Watchtower or Insight book, this means that his tours are unique. His outside the box approach to history and the Bible often has guests scrambling to write down Biblical points and perspectives they had never considered or heard of, making for a memorable and faith strengthening tour.

David is one of only two legal Witness guides in Israel, and you can follow him on Instagram (@drinkoffering) or see more of his programs and research material on his website (www.drinkofferingtours.com).
