Tour Description:

We will meet at Jaffa Gate of the Old City and begin with a history of the city in the Canaanite period, as the focus of the day is Jerusalem’s history until the Babylonian destruction.

We will arrive at the City of David and explore the extensive excavations and finds from the first temple period and what we can learn when comparing it the the Biblical record of people like David, Solomon, Hezekiah and Jermiah.

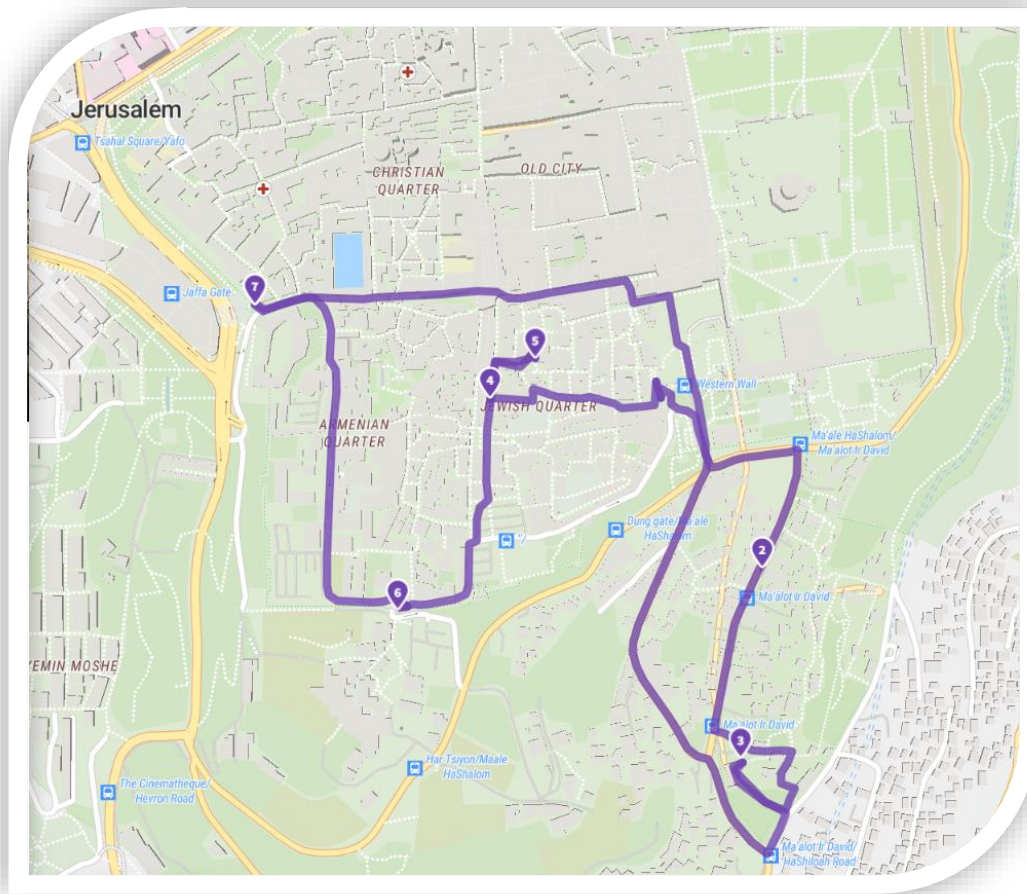

While at City of David, we will see the Canaanite Tunnel, the palace excavation and the Gihon fortress excavation, among other things.

We will then walk back up to the Jewish Quarter for lunch, and after, discuss the city’s expansion under Hezekiah and how the Biblical record proves true by examining various sites within the Old City. We will finished at Jaffa Gate where we began.
